FROM THE EDITOR

Editor's Note.

This issue is about returning to what truly matters: movement, balance, and becoming the best version of yourself.

We created Forme to inspire you to slow down, take care of your body, and find joy in the little things — the warm light at 7am, the steady breath on the reformer, the lemon water you reach for first.

THE SOFT STRENGTH era.

Strength doesn't have to be loud. It's found in consistency, in control, and in how you choose to show

We trade volume for precision; sprint for breath; the mirror for the moment. The reformer becomes less of a

04 — COMMUNITY IN MOTION

Recovery is where the body rebuilds.

Cold water, slow stretches, the long walk that doesn't count as a workout. Rest is not a break from progress — it's part of it.

Build it into the week with the same quiet discipline you build your training.
